-All parts of this piece are completely independent

This is a completely handmade piece. For this reason, below we leave you a complete guide on how you can take care of this piece to make sure it will last.

Blown Glass:

Cleaning

- Use care when handling the piece
- Make sure your hands are clean
- Pick up by the base
- Loosen the dust with a lint-free microfiber cloth

Water & Detergents

- Use a damp lint-free cloth to wipe glass art after dry dusting
- Wash gently in warm water with neutral soap
- Do not use ammonia, cream cleaners or any harsh chemicals to clean

Drying

- After washing dry your piece thoroughly with a soft cloth

Do not wash two pieces together as they may get scratched or damaged in the process

Do not put extremely hot or cold liquid into your glass as this may cause it to crack

Do not put your piece in a dishwasher

Do not use aerosol cleaners

IMPORTANT NOTE !

Air bubbles are a natural characteristic of handmade glass, reflecting the dynamic smelting process that ceases once the piece is formed, leaving the bubble as a timeless imprint. Each bubble is a testament to the uniqueness and originality of the craft, carrying a trace of the glassmaker's artistry and spirit.

A small bubble is not considered a defect and does not warrant a return. However, we prioritize customer satisfaction, so if you are unhappy with your item, our team will be happy to assist with an exchange or find another solution.
